

Closed roundtable discussion on the ICC Review Conference

Friday 14 May 2010, River Meadow Manor, Irene, Gauteng

Agenda

9.45	Arrival and tea/coffee
10.00	Welcome and objectives Anton du Plessis, Head, International Crime in Africa Programme, ISS
10.15 - 10.40	Overview of the Review Conference: aims, approach and key issues Antoinette Louw, Senior research fellow, International Crime in Africa Programme, ISS
10.40 - 11.00	Discussion
11.00 - 11.15	Break
11.15 - 12.00	The Crime of Aggression: background, proposed amendments, likely developments at the Review Conference and beyond Andre Stemmet, Senior State Law Adviser (International Law), Department of International Relations & Cooperation, SA Anton du Plessis, Head, International Crime in Africa Programme, ISS
12.00 - 12.30	Discussion
12.30 - 13.30	Lunch
13.30 - 14.00	Overview of Africa's position on the ICC and Review Conference issues, and implications for southern Africa Max du Plessis, Senior research associate, International Crime in Africa Programme, ISS and Professor of Law, University of Kwazulu-Natal
14.00 - 15.30	Discussion of key issues for southern Africa and possibility of further sub-regional engagement on international justice and ICC related issues Facilitated by ISS
15.30	Closure

OPEN SOCIETY FOUNDATION FOR SOUTH AFRICA