

Hanns
Seidel
Foundation

CONFERENCE ON MARITIME SECURITY ISSUES ON THE EAST COAST OF AFRICA

SAS DRAKENSBERG, MOMBASA HARBOUR
26 NOVEMBER 2007

ABOUT THE ISS

A regional applied policy research institute with offices in Addis Ababa, Cape Town, Pretoria and Nairobi

Undertaking independent research and, where possible, working collaboratively with and through national, sub-regional & regional organisations

Engaging the international debate from Africa with a regional composition

Our Mission

Our mission is to conceptualise, inform and enhance the debate on human security in Africa in order to support policy formulation and decision making at every level towards the enhancement of human security for all in Africa.

Defence Sector Programme

OBJECT

To strengthen democracy and good governance of the defence and security sector in Africa and thereby contribute to human security and development

AAAA
Security

=

Appropriate + Adequate Accountable + Affordable

Conference rationale

- The need to enhance human security in Africa.
- Development and security are inextricably linked and the one cannot be separated from the other.
- CADSP on Human Security: “The right to equal development as well as the right to have access to resources and the basic necessities of life; the right to protection.....”
- Right to pluck the fruits of African maritime and marine resources.
- Protection against illegal exploitation, misuse and destruction of these resources.

Programme

- Opening Address: HE Mr. T.S. Msimanga, South African High Commissioner to Kenya
- Maritime security in the changing international geo-strategic scenario and its influence on the east coast of Africa: Official Kenyan Navy
- Maritime security in the Horn of Africa: Cdr (Dr) Thean Potgieter, SA Military Academy
- Briefing by SA Navy and tour of SAS Drakensberg
- Lunch

Programme

- The manifestation and challenges to combating Piracy on the east coast of Africa: Dr Henri Fouché, Tshwane University of Technology
- The exploitation of fishing resources on the east coast of Africa: Mr Martin Purves
- The role of African Naval assets in support of the African Standby Force (with a focus on the operational structures for the maritime component of EASBRIGCOM and the SADC Brigade): Major Claude Bizimana and Official Tanzanian Navy
- Maritime and Naval cooperation and integration of effort on the east coast of Africa: Mr Wilfred Kagimbi, Kenya Maritime Authority

Enjoy the day with us!

